IB mission statement

The International Baccalaureate aims to develop inquiring, knowledgeable and caring young people who help to create a better and more peaceful world through intercultural understanding and respect.

To this end the organization works with schools, governments and international organizations to develop challenging programmes of international education and rigorous assessment.

These programmes encourage students across the world to become active, compassionate and lifelong learners who understand that other people, with their differences, can also be right.
IB learner profile

The aim of all IB programmes is to develop internationally minded people who, recognizing their common humanity and shared guardianship of the planet, help to create a better and more peaceful world.

As IB learners we strive to be:

INQUIRERS
We nurture our curiosity, developing skills for inquiry and research. We know how to learn independently and with others. We learn with enthusiasm and sustain our love of learning throughout life.

KNOWLEDGEABLE
We develop and use conceptual understanding, exploring knowledge across a range of disciplines. We engage with issues and ideas that have local and global significance.

THINKERS
We use critical and creative thinking skills to analyse and take responsible action on complex problems. We exercise initiative in making reasoned, ethical decisions.

COMMUNICATORS
We express ourselves confidently and creatively in more than one language and in many ways. We collaborate effectively, listening carefully to the perspectives of other individuals and groups.

PRINCIPLED
We act with integrity and honesty, with a strong sense of fairness and justice, and with respect for the dignity and rights of people everywhere. We take responsibility for our actions and their consequences.

OPEN-MINDED
We critically appreciate our own cultures and personal histories, as well as the values and traditions of others. We seek and evaluate a range of points of view, and we are willing to grow from the experience.

CARING
We show empathy, compassion and respect. We have a commitment to service, and we act to make a positive difference in the lives of others and in the world around us.

RISK-TAKERS
We approach uncertainty with forethought and determination; we work independently and cooperatively to explore new ideas and innovative strategies. We are resourceful and resilient in the face of challenges and change.

BALANCED
We understand the importance of balancing different aspects of our lives—intellectual, physical, and emotional—to achieve well-being for ourselves and others. We recognize our interdependence with other people and with the world in which we live.

REFLECTIVE
We thoughtfully consider the world and our own ideas and experience. We work to understand our strengths and weaknesses in order to support our learning and personal development.

The IB learner profile represents 10 attributes valued by IB World Schools. We believe these attributes, and others like them, can help individuals and groups become responsible members of local, national and global communities.

Introduction

The Programme standards and practices document is part of a suite of documents that is essential for all prospective and authorized IB World Schools. The suite provides critical information for the planning, implementation, development and evaluation of all International Baccalaureate® (IB) programmes.

- The foundation of what it means to be an IB World School is articulated in the Programme standards and practices document.
- The process of how schools attain and maintain authorization is articulated in the authorization and evaluation documents.
- The legal stipulations are articulated in the rules and general regulations related to the IB programmes.

All of these documents can be found on the IB public website (http://www.ibo.org).

This Programme standards and practices document provides a set of criteria against which both the IB World School and the IB can evaluate success in the implementation of the four programmes: the Primary Years Programme (PYP), the Middle Years Programme (MYP), the Diploma Programme (DP) and the IB Career-related Certificate (IBCC). It replaces the document published in 2010.

This document contains programme standards (common to all programmes), practices (common to all programmes) and requirements (specific to an individual programme).

The standards are general requisites established for schools to implement any IB programme. Practices are further definitions of the standards. Requirements are programme-specific, as each programme has unique features and demands-specific requirements. These programme requirements are detailed under the related practice and are also referenced in other programme-specific documentation. The common standards and practices, and the programme-specific requirements are necessary for the successful implementation of the relevant IB programme.

The IB is aware that for each school, the implementation of an IB programme is a journey and that the school will meet these standards and practices to varying degrees along the way. However, the IB expects that the school must make a commitment towards meeting all the standards, practices and programme requirements. Programme standards and practices is the foundational document for schools and the IB to ensure quality and fidelity in the implementation of its programmes.
Note: This is an updated version of the 2010 publication. It incorporates the IBCC programme standards and practices—therefore, the separate publication of the IBCC Standards, practices and requirements (2011) is now withdrawn.

This updated version does include changes to the MYP requirements.
Section A: Philosophy

Standard A
The school’s educational beliefs and values reflect IB philosophy.
1. The school’s published statements of mission and philosophy align with those of the IB.
2. The governing body, administrative and pedagogical leadership and staff demonstrate understanding of IB philosophy.

<td>The four educational programmes offered by the IB (the Primary Years Programme, the Middle Years Programme, the Diploma Programme and the IB Career-related Certificate). A school may have authorization to offer one or more.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Programme requirements</td>
<td>These provide programme-specific detail on some common practices. Both the requirements and practices are necessary for the successful implementation of the respective IB programme.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Resources</td>
<td>This may include people, time, materials and money.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>School community</td>
<td>All stakeholders of the school—students, parents, school staff, school managers and the governing body. The IB anticipates its educational programme(s) will have a positive influence upon the entire school community.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Staff</td>
<td>All school personnel involved in the programme(s), including those with managerial roles, those with academic roles (teachers/faculty) and those with support roles.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Standards</td>
<td>The general requisites established for schools to implement any IB programme. They indicate what schools must have in place to implement the PYP, the MYP, the DP and the IBCC. The standards must be met at the point of authorization and at each programme evaluation. Programme standards are what schools demonstrate in order to maintain authorization; they can be reached by implementing the practices identified for each standard.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teaching hours</td>
<td>The number of clock hours of contact time with students.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The school</td>
<td>A holistic term referring to the entity established for implementing the programme(s), the decision-makers and its stakeholders.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Written curriculum</td>
<td>The documentation identifying in detail what is to be taught, such as planners, units, outlines, lesson plans and syllabuses.</td>
</tr>
